Please answer the following questions as briefly and completely as you can:

1. Write a simple CGI/Python script and explain it.

2. What is HTTP? Where is it addressed directly in your script?

3. Write the simplest CGI/Python script that keeps state on the server side and explain it.

4. Give the SQL that creates the table used by the script in the previous question.

5. Write the simplest PHP script that keeps state on the server-side.

6. How do you disable accidental reloads in the script from the previous question?

7. What is the general structure of a CakePHP application? Think in terms of the blog example.

8. What is Django? How do we install it and how do we switch from one version to another?

9. Briefly define the following terms: MVC, CGI, HTML, state, SQL, MySQL, PHP, Python.

10. Briefly indicate what Apache is and describe its directory structure.

11. How did we set up password protected access to our Apache folders?